Annotated Bibliography

Compile a list of TEN sources—in MLA style—which includes at least

- ☐ one overview source
- ☐ one journal article
- ☐ one newspaper article
- ☐ one book
- ☐ one expert
- ☐ one credible website
- ☐ one film
- ☐ one poem

Other Possible Sources: songs, TV shows, surveys, lectures, paintings and photographs, pamphlets, unpublished papers, charts and graphs, observations/first-hand research

For each source, also include a two- to four-sentence annotation. Each annotation should include two parts: a brief summary of the contents and a note about its author or publisher or sponsor.

Example:

citation ↓ brief summary ↓

Railton, Stephen. "Mothers, Husbands, and Uncle Tom." The Georgia Review 38.1 (1984): 129-44. This journal article focuses primarily on the role of mothers in Uncle Tom's Cabin. But Railton addresses the role of fathers as well, primarily in conjunction with the role of husband. Stephen Railton holds a PhD from Columbia and is a professor in American literature at the University of Virginia. He has published numerous journal articles and book chapters on American literature.
